

Internet Resources for Teachers and Students

- San Luis website: <http://www.missionsanluis.org>
Official Website of Mission San Luis. You will find information about site visits, education programs, and lesson plans that are offered. A teacher's resource guide can be downloaded and printed out.
- Division of Historical Resources <http://dhr.dos.state.fl.us>
This has links to the Bureau of Archaeological Research, Bureau of Historic Preservation and other resources within the division.
- Article and lesson plan on primary source documents by Peter Cowdrey in the Organization of American Historian's Magazine of History. It is based on a 1675 Bishop's Description of the Christianized Indians of Spanish Florida.
<http://www.oah.org/pubs/magazine/spanishfrontier/cowdrey.html>
The full issue can be viewed at the following address:
<http://www.oah.org/pubs/magazine/spanishfrontier/index.html>

- Exploring Florida, a social studies resource for students and teachers developed by the Florida Center for Instructional Technology, University of South Florida. It includes thousands of Florida resources in all subject areas:
<http://fcit.coedu.usf.edu/florida/default.htm>

Specifically Mission San Luis:

<http://fcit.coedu.usf.edu/florida/lessons/lessons.htm>

Pictures of Mission San Luis inexplicably listed under "Military," but containing a wealth of images of living history, artifacts, and building.

<http://fcit.coedu.usf.edu/florida/photos/military/military.htm>

- Students interested in artifacts discovered at Mission San Luis or of the period can explore the following:

Crystal cross:

<http://micro.magnet.fsu.edu/micro/gallery/archaeology/archaeology.html>

Military Artifacts of Spanish Florida, 1650–1821:

www.artifacts.org