

Students take part in Las Posadas at Mission San Luis
The Chronicle, January 6, 2010

The screenshot shows a Mozilla Firefox browser window with the address bar containing the URL: <http://www.tallahassee.com/print/article/20100106/ECHRONICLE04/1060345/Students-take-part-in-Las-Posadas-at-Mission-San-Luis>. The page title is "www.tallahassee.com | Printer-friendly article page - Mozilla Firefox". The main content area features the Tallahassee.com logo with the tagline "Tallahassee's Homepage" and the date "January 6, 2010". The article title is "Students take part in Las Posadas at Mission San Luis" by Fran Hudson, noted as "SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE". The text describes a school event where students participated in Las Posadas, a Christmas tradition, at Mission San Luis. It mentions that several third-graders from Angela Saxon's class at Trinity Catholic School were invited to participate. The students, dressed in angel and villager costumes, traveled from house to house at San Luis, and formed a manger scene with other participants. The students, Mackennah Tarmey, Liam Fineout, Mary Claire Ricco, Gracie Lemons and Grace Gober, sang "Joy to the World" at the conclusion of Las Posadas. The event was followed by Mass, celebrated by Bishop John Ricard, and a dedication ceremony at the Visitors Center. A quote from Saxon says, "The students felt very proud to be a part of this celebration of our Catholic heritage," Saxon said.